

Hi Capitol Hill residents! I have always been a pet giver and supporter. I grew up in New York and always was an advocate for pets and animals. After college, I moved to Florida where I started my career as a Canine Officer, training performance working dogs and retiring them to become household pets. Currently, I have three rescue cats! I volunteer at Humane Rescue Alliance when possible. I have been a Capitol Resident for over ten years.